

SENATE BILL No. 441

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 20-12-17.5-7.

Synopsis: College admission standards. Requires a state educational institution (other than Ivy Tech Community College and Vincennes University) to admit students who meet certain requirements. Allows a state educational institution to require a student who meets the requirements to submit standardized college admission test scores, but prohibits the state educational institution from using the scores for admission purposes. Provides that a state educational institution that admits a student under these provisions is not required to enroll the student in a particular college, school, program, or department within the state educational institution.

Effective: July 1, 2007.
